W. J. BRYAN.

The Next President of the United States.

Clerk of Court, Dan Soliday.

ON MONDAY Mr. Dan Soliday assumed the duties of Clerk of Courts, and he took hold of the work like the thorough business man that he is. We called on him in his office and found him banging away on the record machine, keeping up the work as it comes in. He is facing a term of court but a few weeks away.

but there is no more thorough nor competent man could be inducted into office where all the work is new to him. Honest Dan is one of those whole-souled congenial fellows that will be accommodating and thorough, and make a most excellent Clerk of Courts.

The retiring clerk, A. M. Brown has made a good officer. We have always found him fair and accommodating, and we hope for him success in his chosen profession.

JUDGE WRIGHT is getting much encouragement from the several counties of this congressional district in the proposition of his friends that he must be the Democratic candidate for congress. Hundreds of Republicans are urging him to be a candidate, that they will support him, and lend all efforts to defeat Douglas. The debauched manner in which Albert Douglas got his nomination is receiving the condemnation of all fair thinking people in the district regardless of party. Mr. Douglas would do better to stay at home during the campaign, for if he goes about all over the district like he did here, he will defeat himself. He comes bearing the broad mantle of harmony, for his sake, but ignores the rank and file of his party, hobnobbing in stately carriage by the side of Boss White all the time. He is one of the nabobs that got lots of money by his wife, and is now a great and distinguished citizen because of his wife's money.

It would certainly seem to the quiet, thinking Republican that there was a marked difference in favor of the people, between the meeting of the Republican State Committee and that of the Democratic party. At the former, one man, Major Dick, dictated the whole organization. Told the committeemen when the state convention would be held, and that Horrick must be the chairman. This a sweet planting of the red shirt in the faces of the temperance people of the state. To the contrary, look in upon the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee meeting. "Would-be-Boss" Tom Johnson was there and tried to dictate the chairmanship of the convention but the committeemen sat down on him, and his choice, and named McGann whom had not been presented. Chairman of the Committee Garber had hopes that a favorite organization in his county should be recognized, but the un-biased committeemen could not see it his way, and voted his fellows down. Such is the difference be-

A MAJORITY of the Republican party in Hocking county do not feel under any obligation to support the county or district tickets, or even the state ticket. The call for a county primary will be made by an irregular committee and the result of the convention will not be binding on the Republican voters. The Republican papers of this county have been stating this fact, as much as they may regret it. There is no republican organization in the county. The nomination for congress at Lancaster was not made regularly. The delegation from Hocking was appointed by an irregular committee, and therefore the support of the nominee is not binding on any republican in Hocking County, and a majority of republican so understand it.

THE TURNING down of Mr. Frasure as member of the board of election is a pleasing remembrance on the part of Boss White for the love he has for the old soldier. However, he can depend upon them to vote the straight Republican ticket. He can kick them around like an old gum shoe, and yet they come up and vote for his prescribed ring candidates and to perpetuate him in absolute power in this county in his party. We have no recollections at any time of Boss White using his influence to put an old soldier in a position. To the contrary he has always taken pleasure in ousting them when ever possible, and supplying their places with men that he can use. But go on, Mr. Soldier, and vote to keep him in power as boss, and chop your own heads off.

It is a good idea for the Democratic party of Hocking to wake up a little now and begin to set up and notice things. There is an election coming on of some moment in the county, district and state. In the county, Boss White has dominated the Republican party until the natural instincts of free men have revolted against such bold debauchery, and they are going to give their party another cleaning long to be remembered, and it needs it. In the judicial district the family affair of Judge Bradbury and his nephew, judicial candidate Hollis Johnson of Gallia, is smearing it on pretty thick. Otto Vollenweider was entitled to that nomination, and Ricketts had a good chance if his own delegation had not played him false; but Bradbury held the whip and landed the plum for his nephew. In the Congressional district, one Albert Douglas of Chillicothe, most prominently known because of his wife's money, secured a nomination for congress, at the hands of the most debauched convention that perhaps ever pretended to operate under the stars and stripes. A convention in which delegates acknowledged to have received $2000 of purchase money, then turned down the contributor; [must have gotten more from the other side.] A convention that boasted of its "buy and sell," and supposedly the highest bidder took the plum. A convention in which the nominee got up blushing and acknowledged that he was not nominated as he would like to have been; that he did not approve of the "system" that turned the tide his way, but that it took "strong" measures sometimes to fight "strong" factions, and that he had the longest pole to knock the persimmons. Will the free born, honest Republicans of this district "approve" of his nomination and support his candidacy? If he "blushed to speak his name," the people should blush to vote his name.

OHIO BRIEFS.

What's Doing in the Buckeye State.
Once Wealthy, Died Poor.
Cleveland, O., Aug. 8.—Thomas C. Snyder, former state senator and post commander of the Grand Army, a lifetime Mason, Odd Fellow and Elk, died penniless and alone in the City Hospital. He was at one time worth $1,000,000, and was the father of the steel industry in Canton. He was a power in Ohio politics and one of the earliest friends of William McKinley. Unfortunate investments in mining stocks ruined him, his wife secured a divorce, and he was finally stricken with paralysis. He was admitted to the City Hospital June 22, without a cent in his pockets.

Gold Found Near Danville.
Danville, O., Aug. 8.—Some little excitement exists among the residents of Danville and vicinity over the discovery of gold on the farm of William Temple. While watering his horses at a spring Temple picked up a small piece of rock which glistened in the water. He brought it to town, and a local chemist announced that it is rich in gold, containing about $12 worth. To make doubly sure he sent it to Washington to be assayed. Two years ago gold was found several miles farther north, but never developed.

Marylanders in Ohio
Baltimore, Aug. 8.—Governor Edwin Warfield, accompanied by Secretary of State Oswald Tilghman, Adjutant General Clinton L. Riggs and Colonel Richard S. Hill of his staff, left for Springfield, O., to attend a reunion of former Marylanders living in Ohio which is to take place at Springfield.

Jail Delivery at Canton.
Canton, O., Aug. 8.—A jail delivery occurred at the county jail here in which seven prisoners made their escape by sawing through a heavy iron door. It was discovered when Sheriff Wilson visited that part of the jail at 9 p. m., and it is believed the men had a good start when the discovery was made.

Held on Murder Charge.
Zanesville, O., Aug. 8.—Frank Stremmel, a bartender, was arrested on the charge of murdering Charles Harding, who died as the result of a fight. Harding dropped a glass of beer, breaking the glass, and a fight followed in which he was badly used, his skull being fractured at the base.

Hay Fever Club.
Marysville, O., Aug. 8.—Sufferers from hay fever in this city formed a unique club, the object of which is to make an exhaustive test of all hay fever cures, determine the best localities to gain relief during their annual attacks, and to unite against the common enemy generally.

Quite a number of our base ball "fans" went to Columbus Sunday to see the national game, which was to be a double-header, between Columbus and St. Paul, but owing to the heavy rains in that city, they all returned home on the evening train disappointed.

Sanitary Officer's Bill allowed.

The Logan Board of Health, at a special meeting held last night, reconsidered their former action on the bill of William Fields for services as sanitary policeman. During the early part of Mr. Field incumbency, the board, by resolution, authorized him to dispose of dead animals, and specified a compensation for each such case. After a faithful performance of his work, Mr. Fields presented his bill, amounting to $48.50, including fees for burials. The board cut the bill to $26.00, and their action was sustained by the Council. Suit in mandamus has been prepared by Mr. Whitcraft attorney for the claimant, to compel payment of the full amount. This favorable action of the board relieves them of responsibility in the matter. It is likely that the Council will pass the bill at their next meeting, as proceedings against them are in course of preparation.

In order to become thoroughly familiar with the English Author's idea of the character of "The Shoplifter," Miss Louis Llewellyn made a special trip to England and was present at every performance for ten days at The Empress Theater, London. Incidentally Miss Llewellyn, who in private life is Mrs. Jule Walters, crossed over to Paris and invested $3500 with the celebrated Paquin for gowns, which she is wearing in "The Shoplifter." Will open the Opera House on Wednesday, August 15.

JUMPED BAIL, BROUGHT BACK

And Complains That United States Played Trick on Him.

PECULIAR QUESTION AT ISSUE

Fugitive Custom Officer Who Objects to Doing Time at Sing Sing Would Have the Government Conform to More Rigid Rules of Honor Than Required of Individual.

New York, Aug. 8.—A peculiar question is involved in a criminal case pending here. Is it wrong for Uncle Sam to resort to expedients to punish a public servant who abused his trust and then jumped bail to escape serving a term in prison?

As a judicial opinion, the honor of the United States is of more importance than the punishment of a million criminals is the declaration made by Judge Hough in the United States circuit court here in habeas corpus proceedings on behalf of Charles C. Browne, formerly employed in the customs service in this city.

Browne was extradited in Canada and taken to Sing Sing prison to begin a two years' term for conspiracy to defraud the government.

Browne was convicted of conspiring to defraud the government and sentenced to two years in prison. He jumped a $12,500 bail bond and fled to Canada. Extradition was refused on the conspiracy charge, but he finally was extradited on an amended charge of being a fugitive from justice. His attorneys expected that he would first be brought to New York, but instead he was taken direct to Sing Sing prison.

W. M. K. Olcott of counsel for Browne denounced the action of the federal authorities in extraditing Browne for one offense and incarcerating him for another as a trick beneath the dignity of the government of this country and in violation of the treaty with Canada.

In taking the papers in the case and reserving decision, Judge Hough commented on the Rauscher decision in supreme court of the United States, in which the contentions advanced in behalf of Browne were upheld, and it was in this connection that he spoke of the honor of the United States being of more importance than the conviction of criminals. He said his understanding of the Rauscher decision was the supreme court made much of the question of the honor of the United States in such matters. "Were it not for the Rauscher decision, however, I will say now," declared Judge Hough, "that I would send Browne back to Sing Sing." Some significance was attached to the fact that Charles Fox, counsel of Sir Percy Sanderstead, the British consul general here, was present during the hearing.

Thinks Stern Is Over.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—A member of the cabinet says the government regards the storm raised by the dissolution of parliament as passed, and it intends immediately to proceed to carry out the policy of "strong-handed reform" to which Premier Stolypin committed himself. The cardinal plank of the program is an attempt to appease the discontented peasantry as far as possible. The government's agrarian program will be promulgated and probably placed in effect as a temporary law, the emperor having the right to issue temporary laws during a recess of parliament. In other words, it is the intention of the government to attempt to solve its most difficult problem irrespective of parliament in the belief that it will meet with enough support to make it impossible for the next parliament to refuse assent.

FOOD FURNISHED

At New York Navy Yard Said to Be Net of Best Quality.

Washington, Aug. 7.—An investigation of the supply of meat and bread for the New York navy yard is being made. A verbal report by the inspector was made to Secretary Bonaparte, and it shows a very unsatisfactory condition. The contractor who was the lowest bidder for the meat bid quite low on the better grades, evidently under the impression that there would be few orders of such grades. He was unable to supply meats of the grades at times and purchases have been made elsewhere and charged to his account. The lower grades have been found to be very unsatisfactory and the complaints seem to have been verified by the investigation as far as made. When the formal report is made and additional facts are ascertained, it is possible that the contracts for meat and bread will be canceled.

Strike a Fiasco.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—In the light of developments the general strike may almost be regarded as a fiasco. The summons to go out met some response in Moscow, where the printers and the streetcar men and part of the employees of the gas, water and electric light plants quit work, but these are more than offset by the defections in St. Petersburg. The revolutionists possibly may yet be saved by the railroad men, but the central committees of the railroad men have not yet reached a final decision, and, in spite of the frantic efforts of the agitators, not a single important line of the empire is affected.

Major Schofield Suicided.

San Francisco, Aug. 7.—Major and Paymaster William B. Schofield of the regular army, son of the late Lieutenant General Schofield, U. S. A., retired, shot and killed himself in this city. Major Schofield was on a leave of absence on account of ill health and in explanation of the suicide it is said he feared an attack of locomotor ataxia and that he would become a burden to his wife.
